

Clovis Unified School District
Supplemental Literature for Grade 4

Title	Author	Summary
18 th Emergency, The	Byars, Betsy	When the toughest boy in school swears to kill him, twelve year-old Mouse finds little help from friends and must prepare for this emergency alone.
26 Fairmont Ave.	Paola, Tomie De	Children's author-illustrator Tomie De Paola describes his experiences at home and in school when he was a boy.
A Long Way from Chicago	Peck, Richards	A boy recounts his annual summer trips to rural Illinois with his sister during the Great Depression to visit their larger-than-life grandmother.
A Night Without Stars	Howe, James	When eleven-year-old Maria must go to the hospital for open-heart surgery, she finds strength in her friendship with a badly scarred burn victim.
A Traitor Among the Boys	Reynolds Naylor, Phyllis	Young Peter Hartford doesn't understand his brothers' rivalry with the Malloy sisters, and gladly confides the boys' secret plot against the girls in return for homemade cookies. Hilarious pranks and surprising affections hatch and grow between the Malloy girls and the Hartford boys, until a blizzard ups the ante.
A Wrinkle in Time	L'Engle, Madeleine	Meg and Charles Wallace and Calvin O'Keefe search for Meg's father, a scientist who disappeared while trying to solve the tesseract (wrinkle in time) problem. The story combines theology, fantasy, and science in a story of time and space travel and the power of good over evil.
Aliens Ate my Homework	Coville, Bruce	Rod is surprised when a miniature spaceship lands in his school science project and reveals five tiny aliens, who ask his help in apprehending an interstellar criminal.
Amber Brown Wants Extra Credit	Danziger, Paula	Unhappy over her parents' divorce and her mother's boyfriend Max, nine-year-old Amber finds her schoolwork suffering.
Anne Frank's Story	Ralph, Brenda Lewis	Thirteen-year-old Anne Frank went into hiding from the Nazis with her family in 1942.
Aquamarine	Anshaw, Carol	Imagine how different your life would be if you had made other choices at a crucial turning point in the past. Aquamarine probes that idea through the character of Jesse Austin, a former Olympic swimmer who, at age 17, lost the gold medal in the Mexico City games--a loss that has haunted her ever since.
Arm of the Starfish, The	L'Engle, Madeleine	Adam Eddigton, a brilliant student of marine biology, is thrilled when he is selected to be the summer assistant to Dr. O'Keefe. As he travels to Dr. O'Keefe's laboratory, which is on a small island off the coast of Portugal, he meets the attractive Caroline Cuttler. She gives Adam a mysterious warning about a passenger he will meet on his next flight. When her warning comes true, Adam finds himself in the center of a power struggle between two groups of people--only one of which can be right.
Back Yard Angel	Delton, Judy	Although ten-year-old Angel loves her little brother Rags dearly, the constant responsibility of taking care of him weighs heavily on her young shoulders.
Ballad of the Civil War, The	Stolz, Mary	Weary of the war, a Union lieutenant recalls his life with his twin brother on their family's Virginia plantation and the events that led them to fight on different sides in the Civil War.

Balto and the Great Race	Kimmel, Elizabeth	Recounts how the sled dog Balto saved Nome, Alaska, in 1925 from a diphtheria epidemic by delivering medicine through a raging snowstorm.
Bandit's Moon	Fleischman, Sid	Orphan Annyrose sets off to find her brother in the California gold fields, is held hostage by O. O. Mary, and rescued by the notorious outlaw Joaquin Murietta. Thinking Annyrose is a boy, Murietta spares her life after she promises to teach him to read so that he can find out what is being said about him in newspapers and on posters.
Because of Winn-Dixie	DiCamillo, Kate	When Opal and her father, the preacher, move to Florida, Opal goes into a Winn-Dixie supermarket and comes out with a dog. With the help of her new pal, Opal makes a variety of new, interesting friends. She spends the summer collecting stories about them and thinking about her absent mother.
Biddy Mason The Open Hand	Ferris, Jeri Chase	Recounts the life of Biddy Mason, a slave who found freedom in California in 1856, who practiced the philosophy of sharing as she nursed the sick, delivered babies, and started many philanthropic projects after becoming a wealthy landowner in Los Angeles.
Black Pearl	O'Dell, Scott	Sixteen-year-old Ramon joins his father to dive for pearls in Baja California. Rejecting the village legends about a monster fish called Manta Diablo; Ramon captures the great black pearl of his dreams. But when strange events afflict him, he realizes that there may be truth in the old tales.
Black Star, Bright Dawn	O'Dell, Scott	Bright Dawn never thought she would be taking her father's place in the Iditarod, the challenging and treacherous dogsled race that covers more than 1,000 miles between Anchorage and Nome. Bright Dawn loves the trail, but she comes to know its perils, too, when she has to depend on her lead dog, Black Star, not just for the race, but for her life.
Blue Willow	Gates, Dorris	A little girl, who wants most of all to have a real home and to go to a regular school, hopes that the valley her family has come to, which so resembles the pattern on her treasured blue willow plate, will be their permanent home.
Boggart, The	Cooper, Susan	When Emily and her family return to Canada from their trip to Scotland, where they visited the castle they had inherited, strange things begin to happen. Could it be possible that she has accidentally trapped an invisible, mischievous spirit - the Boggart - in her computer?
Boston Jane	Holm, Jennifer	Schooled in the lessons of etiquette for young ladies of 1854, Miss Jane Peck of Philadelphia finds little use for manners during her long sea voyage to the Pacific Northwest and while living among the American traders and Chinook Indians of Washington Territory.
Bound for Oregon	Leeuwen, Jean Van	The adventures of nine-year-old Mary Ellen Todd and her family as they travel from Arkansas across the Oregon Trail in 1852. Mary Ellen has to deal with not only the difficult and dangerous journey, but also with her feelings about her new stepmother, and her sadness over leaving her beloved grandmother behind in Arkansas.
Boy	Dahl, Roald	Anecdotes from the author's childhood are presented, which include summer vacations in Norway and life at an English boarding school. This author is well known for his book CHARLIE AND THE CHOCOLATE FACTORY and JAMES AND THE GIANT PEACH. Language reflects the time of the author's youth.
Brian's Winter	Paulsen, Gary	Brian Robeson, a young boy marooned in the wilds of Alaska in the book HATCHET, is the hero of this novel. Paulsen reintroduces the original survival story but imagines that Brian isn't rescued in the fall and therefore must fight the elements of nature in order to survive a freezing winter in the Alaskan wilderness.

Bridge to Taribithea	Paterson, Katherine	The life of a ten-year-old boy in rural Virginia expands when he becomes friends with a newcomer who subsequently meets an untimely death trying to reach their hideaway, Terabithia, during a storm.
Broccoli Tapes, The	Slepian, Jan	During a stay of several months in Hawaii with her family, Sara reports her experiences by tape back to her sixth grade class in Boston, detailing her "adoption" of a wild cat, a friendship with a troubled Hawaiian boy, and the death of a beloved grandmother.
Bud, Not Buddy	Curtis, Christopher Paul	Ten-year-old Bud - "not Buddy" - Caldwell is an orphan on the run during the Great Depression. He escapes from an abusive foster home to find the man he believes to be his father. One dilemma after another uncovers a tough character who perseveres and triumphs in his quest.
Bud, Snow and the Burly Bear-Scare	Wallace, Bill and Carol	A young moose, his mother, and his animal friends' team up to fight a bully of a grizzly bear one long, hard winter, and make friends with some humans in the process.
Bunnacula	Howe, Deborah; Howe, James	When a little rabbit called Bunnacula enters the Monroe household, vegetables begin turning white, and Chester the cat is convinced that Bunnacula is a vampire rabbit who sucks the juices out of vegetables. This is the first in a series of rollicking stories about Harold, Chester, and Bunnacula.
By the Great Horned Spoon	Fleischman, Sid	It is 1849 and Jack Flagg stows away on a ship headed for the California gold fields where he plans to recoup his Auntie Arabella's fortune.
California Gold Rush	Caughey, John Walton	Describes adventures and disasters in the lives of people who rushed to the gold mines of California in 1848 and explains how this event sparked the state's development.
Call of the Wild	London, Jack	As Buck, a mistreated sled dog, roams the Alaskan wilderness and once again experiences the "call of the wild," he finds friendship with a new master.
Castle in the Attic	Winthrop, Elizabeth	Ten-year-old William is so distraught at the idea of his beloved Nanny returning to England that, with the aid of a magic token, he shrinks her to toy size and keeps her in the model castle that had been her parting gift to him.
Charlie and the Chocolate Factory	Dahl, Roald	Charlie Bucket, so poor that he can only afford one candy bar a year, wins candy for life and a tour of Willie Wonka's top-secret chocolate factory. There are four other prizewinners, each a selfish child with a nasty personality. The story is filled with excitement, fantasy, humor, and moral lessons. This selection is the first of a series about Charlie Bucket.
Charlie and the Chocolate Factory	Dahl, Roald	Charlie Bucket, so poor that he can only afford one candy bar a year, wins candy for life and a tour of Willie Wonka's top-secret chocolate factory. There are four other prizewinners, each a selfish child with a nasty personality. The story is filled with excitement, fantasy, humor, and moral lessons. This selection is the first of a series about Charlie Bucket.
Charlotte's Web	White, E. B.	A bashful and naive young pig named Wilbur becomes friends with a spider named Charlotte, who saves Wilbur's life by convincing the farmer and community members that he is no ordinary porker.
Class Clown	Hurwitz, Johanna	At first, Lucus Cott enjoys his reputation of being the third-grade class clown. His pranks are usually "good intentions gone wrong," and he vows that he will become a perfect student. However, it is with some difficulty that he learns there is a right and wrong way to use his humor. TEACHER'S PET and CLASS PRESIDENT are from the same series.
Courage in the Sky	Kerby, Mona	Follows the life of the pilot who was the first woman to cross the Atlantic by herself in a plane.
Cricket in Times of Square, The	Selden, George	Music and friendship change the lives of a cricket, a mouse, a cat, and a young boy in New York City's Time Square subway station.

Cuckoo Child, The	Freeman, Suzie	Eleven-year-old Mia refuses to believe that her parents are not coming back after they're reported lost at sea.
Dame Shirley	Rawls, Jim	Relates how a series of letters, written by a woman known as Dame Shirley and published in a San Francisco magazine in 1854 and 1855, were instrumental in inciting the California gold rush.
Danger! Volcanoes	Simon, Seymour	Introduces the facts about volcanoes, what they are, why and how they erupt, different types of volcanoes found around the world, and the effects of some famous eruptions of the twentieth century.
Danny Champion of the World	Dahl, Roald	Danny's mother died when he was only four months old, and since that time he's been raised by his kind and gentle father. Despite missing his mother, Danny is well-adjusted boy who lives with his father in a caravan behind his father's gas station. Danny thinks he knows his father very well, but at age nine, he discovers that his father has been hiding a big secret: he's a poacher. When Danny uncovers his dad's secret, he is eager to join in the fun.
Daring to be Abigail	Vail, Rachel	During her summer at Camp Nashaquitsa, eleven-year-old Abby tries to reinvent herself, while worrying about her mother, missing her dead father, and getting to know her equally self-conscious bunkmates
Dear Mr. Henshaw	Cleary, Beverly	Leigh Botts, now a sixth-grader, began writing to his favorite author, Boyd Henshaw, when Leigh was in the second grade. The reader journeys with Leigh and learns how he adjusts to new situations, including the absence of his father from the home.
Dew Drop Dead	Howe, James	While setting up a homeless shelter at the church, Sebastian and his friends, Corrie and David, solve the mystery of a dead man found in an abandoned inn.
Digger	Pratchett, Terry	A group of small creatures called gnomes, whose families have lived for generations hidden in a department store, are forced to flee to a country quarry, where they struggle against harsh weather, destructive humans, and dissension among themselves.
Donavan's World Jar	Degross, Monalisa	When the jar that Donovan keeps his word collection in fills up, he finds a special way to give his words away and get something wonderful in return.
Donner Party	Calabro, Marian	The Westward Movement to California was a journey that required bravery, skill, and strong determination. One of the most remembered trips was the ill-fated journey of the Donner Party. The journey started in the spring of 1846 and ended when the party became trapped and snowbound in the wild Sierras. Many died, and those who survived did so at a tremendous cost.
Door in the Wall, The	De Angeli, Marguerite	In this tale of the Middle Ages, Robin, son of Sir Jon de Bureford, is crippled by a strange disease. He is rescued by Brother Luke, who opens Robin's eyes to the many doors in life.
Double Fudge	Blume, Judy	Five-year-old Farley Drexel Hatcher, better known as "Fudge," and his older brother, Peter, return for another adventure. Here Fudge develops an obsession with money (and what money can buy) that continually embarrasses Peter.
Dragons in the Waters	L'Engle, Madeleine	A thirteen-year-old boy's trip to Venezuela with his cousin culminates in murder and the discovery of an unexpected bond with an Indian tribe, dating from the days of Simão Bolívar.
Dreadful Acts	Ardagh, Philip	Twelve-year-old Eddie Dickens survives encounters with an escape artist in a runaway hearse's coffin, a hot air balloon bearing the escape artist's lovely assistant, a gas explosion, and a jewel thief on the run.
Eat your Poison, Dear	Howe, James	Teen sleuth Sebastian Barth works to solve another mystery when his school is flooded with cases of food poisoning. Could the cafeteria's cook, Miss Swille, be out to kill the students?

Ella Enchanted	Levine, Gail Carson	This fairy tale adaptation presents Ella (Cinderella) with a very unusual problem. A gift from one of her godmothers was obedience, and now Ella's life is miserable because she must follow every command, even if it is contrary to her wishes. When a young prince appears, Ella hopes that he can help her break the spell that holds her.
Ellen Tebbits	Cleary, Beverly	Eight-year-old Ellen Tebbits and new-girl-in-town Austine Allen form a fast friendship when they bond over the embarrassing fact that both of their mothers make them wear long woolen underwear all winter. As their friendship blossoms, the girls support each other in school.
Enchantress from the Stars	Engdahl, Sylvia Louise	This thought-provoking novel combines science fiction with fantasy and tells the story of contact on the planet Andrecia between three civilizations. Narratives from members of each group give the reader different versions of this interaction.
Encyclopedia Brown and the Case of the Disgusting Sneakers	Sobol, Donald J.	A stolen teacup. An extra set of footprints. Four very strange words. A pirates treasure. .And a race to find a cheater in Idaville's annual disgusting sneaker contest! These are just some of the ten brain-twisting mysteries that Encyclopedia Brown must solve by using his famous computer like brain.
Esperanza Rising	Pam Muñoz Ryan	Esperanza and her mother are forced to leave their life of wealth and privilege in Mexico to go work in the labor camps of Southern California, where they must adapt to the harsh circumstances facing Mexican farm workers on the eve of the Great Depression.
Exploring the Night Sky	Moore, Patrick	In this title the author, a veteran astronomy writer, describes how to use binoculars for astronomical observation. He explains basic astronomy and the selection of binoculars, and then discusses the stars, clusters, nebulae, and galaxies that await the observer.
Eye of the Storm	Crosson-Tower, Cynthia	This Civil War history is based on the writings of a Union soldier who was captured and sent to Andersonville, the infamous Confederate prison where thousands died. Sneden survived the war and his papers reside in the Virginia Historical Society.
Flunking of Joshua J. Bates, The	Shreve, Susan	Driving home from the beach on Labor Day, Joshua receives some shocking news from his mother: he must repeat third grade.
Forgotten Door, The	Key, Alexander	The boy from another world learns the best and worst of Earth's civilization as he searches for the way back to his own planet.
Fourth Grade Rats	Spinelli, Jerry	On the first day of school, Suds wishes he could still be in the third grade where, according to school tradition, he would be a "Third Grade Angel" rather than a "Fourth Grade Rat." In order to be a true fourth grader, Suds is now supposed to not being afraid of spiders, not cry, push the younger kids off the swings, and say "no" to his mother. Is this really what being a true fourth grader is all about?
Freaky Friday	Rodgers, Mary	A thirteen-year-old girl gains a much more sympathetic understanding of her relationship with her mother when she has to spend a day in her mother's body.
Friendship, The	Taylor, Mildred D.	This short novel relates the circumstances of a confrontation between a white storekeeper and an elderly African American in rural Mississippi in the 1930s. Four observers witness the effects that racism and peer pressure have on the tenuous friendship between the two men. The dialogue uses language reflecting the times, and the story climaxes in violence, depicting a violation of human rights. An author's note explains the origin of the story.
Frindle	Clements, Andrew	When he decides to turn his fifth-grade teacher's love of the dictionary around on her, clever Nick Allen invents a new word and begins a chain of events that quickly move beyond his control.

Fudge-a-Mania	Blume, Judy	The adventures of Peter Hatcher and his troublemaking little brother, Fudge. In this novel, Peter is disgusted when his parents announce they will be spending three weeks in Maine with his classmate and sworn enemy, Sheila Tubman.
Gathering Blue	Lowry, Lois	Kira's world of the future is almost medieval, filled with violence, bleakness, anger and hostility. She has the unusual skill of embroidery and is given the honorable job of Threader. She enlists her friend Matt to go out into the unknown world to look for blue thread. This powerful story is bleak at times, but it also portrays hope, change, and enlightenment.
Gentle Ben	Morey, Walt	Traces the friendship between a boy and a bear in the rugged Alaskan Territory.
Ghost Hotel	Weinberg, Larry	Mysteriously drawn to an Indiana museum, a twelve-year-old paralyzed girl encounters ghosts who return her to a former life, where she attempts to save the son of a freed slave traveling by Underground Railroad in Kentucky.
Ghosts Don't Eat Potato Chips	Dadey, Debbie	Eddie's Aunt Mathilda won't eat potato chips. She says her deceased husband, Jasper, loved them and they probably killed him! Now spooky things are happening in Aunt Mathilda's house.
Goblins in the Castle	Coville, Bruce	What moans at midnight in Toad-in-a-Cage Castle? Toad-in-a-Cage Castle was filled with secrets -- secrets such as the hidden passages that led to every room, the long stairway that wound down to the dungeon, and the weird creature named Igor who lived there. But it was the mysterious night noises that bothered William the most -- the strange moans that drifted through the halls of the castle where he was raised.
Golden Compass, The	Pullman, Philip	Lyra, an orphan being raised by the Scholars of Jordan College, is a precocious child who lives a life of adventure on the roofs and in the catacombs of the college. A strange encounter one evening with her uncle and the continued disappearance of young children from the country thrust Lyra into a mystery and a quest found only in fantasy stories. This book is the first in a trilogy of high fantasy; the others are THE SUBTLE KNIFE and THE AMBER SPYGLASS.
Granny Torrelli Makes Soup	Creech, Sharon	Twelve-year-old Rosie and Bailey, the boy next door, have been best friends since infancy. When their friendship is strained because of a new girl in their neighborhood, Granny Torrelli knows just how to smooth over the rough spots.
Hannah of Fairfield	Leeuwen, Jean Van	For almost nine-year-old Hannah Perley of Fairfield, Connecticut, growing up means facing new challenges, from saving the life of a baby lamb to helping the family prepare to send her brother Ben to join the colonial soldiers in the American Revolutionary War.
Harriet the Spy	Fitzhugh, Louise	Intensely curious and intelligent, eleven-year-old Harriet M. Welsch aspires to become a writer and begins by keeping a secret notebook of her observations. When her friends discover the notebook, learn about her spying on them, and read her painfully blunt comments, they decide to teach Harriet a lesson.
Hatchet	Paulsen, Gary	After a plane crash, thirteen-year-old Brian survives 54 days in the wilderness, initially with only the aid of a hatchet given to him by his mother. THE RIVER is the sequel; BRIAN'S WINTER is an alternate ending to the story; and BRIAN'S RETURN chronicles what happens three years after Brian's wilderness ordeal.
Heartbeat	Creech, Sharon	Life has rhythms in the life of twelve-year-old Annie, who loves to run, as she ponders the many progressions of adolescence.

Henry and Beezus	Cleary, Beverly	Henry Huggins is determined to buy a shiny red bike to outdo that show-off Scooter McCarthy. But selling bubble gum to the kids at school to earn money only brings Henry trouble. His good friend Beezus and her little sister, Ramona, are determined to help Henry earn the money for the bicycle.
Hey, New Kid	Duffey, Betsy	Third-grader Jeremy dreads going to a new school when his family moves, so he decides to reinvent himself, hoping his new classmates will be impressed.
Holes	Sachar, Louis	Young Stanley Yelnats is sent to a correctional boot camp for a crime he did not commit. Through a series of flashbacks and subplots, the reader solves the puzzle of Camp Green Lake. One of these flashbacks reveals a racially motivated murder. This young adult novel is very useful for studying prediction, foreshadowing, and plot structure.
Holy Enchilada!	Oliver, Lin	Efforts to impress a visiting student from Japan cause Hank to hide his dyslexia while the gang makes enchiladas for a Multi-Cultural Day lunch, and Hank is afraid he was very wrong about the amount of chili powder called for in the recipe.
Homeless Bird	Whelan, Gloria	When a brief (arranged) marriage ends with the death of her young husband, thirteen-year-old Koly is left to find her own life in modern India. After she is cast out of her home, in timeworn tradition, this young woman sets out to forge her own exceptional future, and a life comes together for Koly.
Homesick: My Own Story	Fritz, Jean	The author tells of her youth in 1920s China with the use of family photographs. She recounts detailed memories of picnics on the Great Wall, holidays in the foreign compound, her rebelliousness in British school, and her reaction to being the object of hostility as a foreigner.
Honus and Me	Gutman, Dan	Twelve-year-old Joe, while cleaning out Miss Young's attic, finds the world's most valuable baseball card picturing Honus Wagner. Joe falls asleep wrestling with the thought of telling her about the card. Then he wakes up in the night to see Wagner in his bedroom, and they travel back in time to the 1909 World Series.
Horrible Harry at Halloween	Kline, Suzy	The students in Miss Mackle's third-grade class enjoy a day of Halloween surprises, including Harry's unusual costume.
How to Eat Fried Worms	Rockwell, Thomas	Billy will win $50 if he wins the bet he made that he will eat 15 worms, one per day. This story reflects contemporary language.
Hundred Dresses, The	Estes, Eleanor	Wanda wears the same faded dress to school every day but claims to have 100 dresses at home. Her classmates tease her and make fun of her name and her accent. After she moves away, they feel shame and guilt in knowing that they were unkind to her.
If that Breathes Fire, We're Toast	Stewart, Jennifer	When eleven-year-old Rick and his mother move from San Diego to Tucson he is not too happy about the change, but when they get a fire-breathing, time-traveling dragon to replace their broken furnace, his new life starts to get more interesting.
If You're Not Here, Please Raise Your Hand	Dakos, Kallie	The 38 poems in this collection capture the ups and downs of elementary school life with uncanny accuracy.
In Search of the Grand Canyon	Fraser, Mary Ann	In 1869 Major John Wesley Powell and nine other men set out to explore the unmapped areas of the Colorado River. They were the first people known to survive a trip down the rapids and through the sheer canyons. This account of their story is based on Powell's journals.

In-Between Days, The	Bunting, Eve	George thinks that his father's girlfriend, Caroline Best, is trying to take the place of his dead mother. He wishes she would just stay on the mainland, far away from his family's island home. So he plays a mean trick which he hopes will send her away forever. When George realizes how much his father and younger brother are hurt by his actions, he begins to rethink his feelings about Caroline.
Indian in the Cupboard, The	Cole, Brock	A nine-year-old boy receives a plastic Indian, a cupboard, and a little key for his birthday and finds himself involved in adventure when the Indian comes to life in the cupboard and befriends him.
Island Boy	Cooney, Barbara	Matthias, the youngest of 12 children, lives on an island in Maine and learns the island's secrets. As a grown man, he sails to faraway places but always returns to his beloved island.
Island of the Blue Dolphins	O'Dell, Scott	Left alone on a beautiful but isolated island off the coast of California, a young Indian girl spends eighteen years, not only merely surviving through her enormous courage and self-reliance, but also finding a measure of happiness in her solitary life.
James and the Giant Peach	Dahl, Roald	A young boy escapes from two wicked aunts and embarks on a series of adventures with six giant insects he meets inside a giant peach.
Jennifer, Hecate, Macbeth, William McKinley, and Me, Elizabeth	Konigsburg, E. L.	Two fifth-grade girls, one of whom is the first black child in a middle-income suburb, play at being apprentice witches.
Jeremy Thatcher, Dragon Hatcher	Neville, Emily	Fourteen-year-old Dave and his lawyer dad never seem to see eye-to-eye. In fact, they are always arguing, which upsets Dave's mother causing her to have an asthma attack. Then Dave finds Cat, a stray, and adopts him. On his outings with Cat, Dave meets new friends and learns a lot about himself and his father.
Jim Abbott: He Beat the Odds	Johnson, Rick	A biography of the one-handed pitcher of the California Angels baseball team.
Johnny Appleseed	Aliki	Legendary Johnny Appleseed traveled west with a pouch of apple seeds, stopping to befriend and visit Indians and settlers and planting the seeds along the way.
Journal of Wong Ming-Chung, The	Yep, Lawrence	A young Chinese boy nicknamed Runt records his experiences in a journal as he travels from southern China to California in 1852 to join his uncle during the Gold Rush.
Judy Moody Saves the World	McDonald, Megan	When Judy Moody gets serious about protecting the environment, her little brother Stink thinks she is overdoing it, but she manages to inspire her third grade class to undertake an award-winning, environment-saving project.
Junie B. Jones is (almost) a Flower Girl	Park, Barbara	Six-year-old Junie B. is disappointed to find out that her aunt has asked someone else to be the flower girl at her wedding.
Kensuke's Kingdom	Morpurgo, Michael	When he and his family set off on an around-the-world sailing trip, a boy named Michael thinks he is in for the adventure of a lifetime. However, he gets more adventure than he ever imagined when he and his dog, Stella, fall overboard, eventually washing ashore on a small island.
Kid in the Red Jacket, The	Park, Barbara	When ten-year-old Howard has to move with his family to a distant state, he is forced to live on a street named Chester Pewe, adjust to a new school, and get used to being shadowed by the little girl in a nearby house.

King of the Wind	Henry, Marguerite	Sham and the stable boy Agba travel from Morocco to France to England where, at last, Sham's majesty is recognized and he becomes the "Godolphin Arabian," ancestor of the most superior Thoroughbred horses.
Later Gator	Yep, Laurence	Teddy finds that his imagination has gotten him into trouble once more, when he buys his younger brother Bobby an alligator for his birthday.
Library Card, The	Miller, William	The lives of four young people in different circumstances are changed by their encounters with books.
Lion, The Witch and the Wardrobe, The	Lewis, C. S.	Four English schoolchildren find their way through the back of a wardrobe into the magic land of Narnia and assist its ruler, the golden lion Aslan, to triumph over the White Witch, who has cursed the land with eternal winter.
Little House in the Big Woods	Wilder, Laura Ingalls	A year in the life of two young girls growing up on the Wisconsin frontier, as they help their mother with the daily chores, enjoy their father's stories and singing, and share special occasions when they get together with relatives or neighbors.
Little House on the Prairie	Wilder, Laura Ingalls	In this book, the second in the Little House series, the Ingalls family moves by wagon from Wisconsin to the prairies of the Kansas territory. After many days of travel, the family finds just the right spot to build their new home. Life on the prairie can be difficult, but the pioneering family meets each hardship with resolve and unity.
Little Oh	Melmed, Laura Krauss	A mother tells her son the story of Little Oh, a girl made of paper who becomes separated from her human mother.
Long Way From Chicago	Peck, Richard	A boy recounts his annual summer trips with his sister to rural Illinois to visit their larger-than-life grandmother during the Great Depression. Each chapter revisits an adventure or awareness experienced during a memorable year.
Love That Dog	Creech, Sharon	Told in free verse, this story tells of a boy who comes to enjoy poetry through a wise teacher's introduction. His reluctance becomes interest, then enjoyment, and finally a passion for reading and writing poetry. Through poetry he is finally able to communicate his feelings and thoughts.
Lucy Whipple	Cushman, Karen	Desiring to return to Massachusetts, Lucy tries desperately to change her mother's mind about working in the gold fields of California. Writing helps Lucy to understand her conflicting feelings about this wild land.
M.C. Higgins, The Great	Hamilton, Virginia	As a slag heap, the result of strip mining, creeps closer to his house in the Ohio hills, fifteen-year-old M. C. is torn between trying to get his family away and fighting for the home they love.
Mama, I Want to Sing	Higginsen, Vy	In the late 1940s and early 1950s Doris Winter follows her dream to be a singer, eventually rising from church choir member to pop star.
Maniac Magee	Spinelli, Jerry	Maniac is an "on-his-own" kid searching for a place that he can call home. When he sees no difference between the people of the East Side and the West Side, others begin to realize that Jeffrey "Maniac" Magee is truly the "stuff" from which legends are made.
Matilda	Dahl, Roald	Matilda applies her untapped mental powers to rid the school of the evil, child-hating headmistress, Miss Trunchbull, and restore her nice teacher, Miss Honey, to financial security.
Midwife's Apprentice, The	Cushman, Karen	Set in medieval England, this is the story of a homeless, orphaned girl named Brat whose life changes when she becomes an assistant to a midwife named Jane.

Million Dollar Shot, The	Gutman, Dan	Eleven-year-old Eddie, who lives in a Louisiana trailer park with his widowed mother, gets a chance to win a million dollars by sinking a foul shot at the National Basketball Association finals.
Miss Hickory	Bailey, Carolyn Sherwin	Miss Hickory, "a country woman whose body was an applewood twig and whose head was a hickory nut," must find a way to survive the fierce New Hampshire winter when her human caretaker leaves to spend the season in Boston.
Miss Rumphius	Cooney, Barbara	Great-Aunt Alice Rumphius promises her grandfather that when she grows up she will live by the sea, visit faraway places, and do something to make the world more beautiful. She accomplishes the first two but is stumped by the third until she becomes the Lupine Lady.
Misty Chincoteague	Henry, Marguerite	Paul and his sister Maureen's determination to own a pony from the herd on Chincoteague Island, Virginia, are greatly increased when the Phantom and her colt are among the ponies rounded up for the yearly auction.
Mouse and the Motorcycle, The	Cleary, Beverly	When Keith and his family vacation at the Mountain View Inn, a little hotel mouse called Ralph learns to ride one of Keith's toy motorcycles. Boy and mouse become fast friends, and their adventures will bring laughter to the young reader. California author and setting.
Mr. Poppers Penguins	Atwater, Richard	Mr. Popper is a house painter who lives in a small American town with his wife and two children. It has always been Mr. Popper's dream to travel to Antarctica and see real live penguins, so when he hears that an explorer named Admiral Drake is going on an Antarctic expedition, Mr. Popper writes him a letter. Admiral Drake responds by sending Mr. Popper his very own penguin. As the story progresses, Mr. Popper soon has a family of 10 penguins.
Mrs. Mack	Polacco, Patricia	Patricia has waited all of her ten years for this summer -- she is finally going to learn to ride a horse! But when her father drives her to a shabby stable in run-down Dogpatch, she can't believe her eyes. The tough-looking kids and scary old man next door don't help. How can she ride here? Then along comes Mrs. Mack with her snakeskin boots and big Southern smile. She knows everything about horses -- and kids. And, sure enough, Pat learns more than she ever imagined -- not just about horses, but people too.
Music of Dolphins, The	Hesse, Karen	At the age of four, Mila fell from a refugee craft and was lost in the ocean between Cuba and Florida. Until her rescue eight years later, she lived as a wild child of the sea. As Mila now learns to communicate and deal with the complexities of human feelings, she develops an understanding of a strange new world--and the human soul.
My Side of the Mountain	George, Jean Craighead	Sam Gribbley does what many young people dream of doing—he builds a treehouse in the Catskill Mountains, where he lives alone for a year. The story features his struggle for survival and his ultimate realization that he needs human companionship. The sequel to this selection is THE OTHER SIDE OF THE MOUNTAIN.
Night of the Twisters	Ruckman, Ivy	A fictional account of the night freakish and devastating tornadoes hit Grand Island, Nebraska, as experienced by a twelve-year-old, his family, and friends.
Night Owls, The	Denslow, Sharon Phillips	William and his aunt, both night owls, stay up late and experience the wonder of a midsummer night.
Nothing's Fair in 5 th Grade	Declements, Barthe	Initially repelled by an overweight new student who has serious home problems, the fifth grade class finally learns to accept her.

Number the Stars	Lowry, Lois	In 1943, during the German occupation of Denmark, ten-year-old Annemarie learns how to be courageous when she helps to shelter her Jewish friend from the Nazis.
Off and Running	Soto, Gary	Sensible and smart Miata is running for class president with her best friend, Anna, as her running mate. The girls are shocked to discover that they will be campaigning against Rudy and Alex--the class clowns. While Miata and Anna are serious, Rudy and Alex are loud and funny, and thus get more attention. Are Miata and Anna correct in thinking that the only way they can win the election is to change their personalities to be more like Rudy and Alex?
Old Yeller	Gipson, Fred	The emotional story of the relationship of Travis with his dog, Old Yeller, is set in the Texas hill country in the late 1860s. The novel focuses on the dog's devotion to its duty and its master and on Travis's heartbreaking realization that he must kill Yeller when the dog becomes rabid. The language in the story reflects the times.
Otherwise Known as Sheila the Great	Blume, Judy	A summer in Tarrytown, N.Y., is a lot of fun for ten-year-old Sheila even though her friends make her face up to some self-truths she doesn't want to admit.
Out of the Dust	Hesse, Karen	After an accident that kills her mother and newborn brother and renders her own hands useless, thirteen-year-old Billie Jo struggles to survive. The growing despair and devastation during Oklahoma's dust bowl years of the Great Depression are powerfully depicted in free verse format.
Patty Reed's Doll	Laurgaard, Rachel K.	A wooden doll recalls the hope with which a group of pioneers begins their journey and the ordeals they face as they travel from Springfield, Illinois, to California.
Pet-Sitters, The	Schechter, Ellen	When ten-year-old DeVonn and his friends begin a pet-sitting business, DeVonn ends up caring for a very unusual cat which disappears while her owner is away.
Pirates Don't Wear Pink Sunglasses	Dadey, Debbie	The kids of the Baily School return for another run-in with their increasingly bizarre teachers. In this story, the kids go to a camp where they believe the director is a werewolf and another staff member is a pirate.
Pleasing the Ghost	Creech, Sharon	Dennis has been seeing ghosts, lots of ghosts, ever since the death of his father. Most of the ghosts come and go, but then Dennis receives a visit from the ghost of his Uncle Arvie. Uncle Arvie has lots of plans for Dennis: he needs his help to find a lost love letter, finish a painting, and dig up a buried treasure for Dennis's Aunt Julia, who is Arvie's widow. Dennis loves being haunted by his uncle but wonders if the ghost of his own father will ever come to visit him.
Pony Express, The	Kroll, Steven	A lively, fast-paced text and soft-colored oil painting illustrations bring the excitement of the Pony Express to the reader. Although this form of mail express lasted only 18 months, it was an important step in establishing postal service to the West.
PS Longer Letter Later	Danziger, Paula; Martin, Ann M.	This novel reflects the letters between two seventh-grade best friends after one moves away. The letters focus on everyday issues and explore parent-teen relationships and divorce.
Rabbit Hill	Lawson, Robert	The small animals who live at Rabbit Hill in the Connecticut countryside are excited when they hear that "big folks are coming" to inhabit the empty house on the property. The animals hope that the big folks will keep a proper garden to help maintain their lifestyle and watch carefully as the moving efforts begin.
Ramona and Her Father	Cleary, Beverly	Ramona is now in second grade and life at home changes when her father loses his job. She begins to see the important role that she plays in her family.

Ramona the Pest	Cleary, Beverly	Ramona is now in second grade and life at home changes when her father loses his job. She begins to see the important role that she plays in her family.
Ramona's World	Cleary, Beverly	Follows the adventures of nine-year-old Ramona at home with big sister Beezus and baby sister Roberta and at school in Mrs. Meacham's class.
Rascal	North, Sterling	The author recalls his carefree life in a small midwestern town at the close of World War I, and his adventures with his pet raccoon, Rascal.
Real Thief	Steig, William	When Gawain the goose is deserted by his friends after being unjustly convicted of stealing from his beloved king, the real thief is tortured by his conscience.
Rescue Josh McGuire	Mikaelsen, Ben	When thirteen-year-old Josh runs away to the mountains of Montana with an orphaned bear cub destined for laboratory testing, they both must fight for their lives in a sudden snowstorm.
Return of the Indian	Banks, Lynne Reid	A year after he sends his Indian friend, Little Bear, back into the magic cupboard, Omri decides to bring him back, only to find that he is close to death and in need of help. Sequel to "The Indian in the Cupboard."
Return to Holiday Inn	Howe, James	In this sequel to "Howliday Inn," the Monroe family pets are again boarded at Chateau Bow-Wow, where some spooky goings-on serve as a distraction from the kennel's poor food.
Revolutionary War on Wednesday	Osborne, Mary	Using their magic tree house, Jack and Annie travel back to the time of the American Revolution and help General George Washington during his famous crossing of the Delaware River.
Ribsy	Cleary, Beverly	Separated from his owner, Henry Huggins, in a shopping center parking lot, an ordinary city dog begins a string of bewildering adventures.
Roll of Thunder Hear My Cry	Taylor, Mildred D.	A black family living in Mississippi during the Depression of the 1930s is faced with prejudice and discrimination which its children do not understand.
Roller Skates	Sawyer, Ruth	Relates the incredible adventures of Professor William Waterman Sherman who in 1883 sets off in a balloon across the Pacific, survives the volcanic eruption of Krakatoa, and is eventually picked up in the Atlantic.
Runaway Ralph	Cleary, Beverly	Ralph runs away looking for freedom but winds up a prisoner at a summer camp.
Sable	Hesse, Karen	When a stray dog shows up on the front porch of her Vermont farmhouse, Tate Marshall is delighted because she has always wanted a dog. But when Sable, named for her dark, silky fur, starts roaming, the neighbors become irate, and Sable has to go. Tate, however, has her heart set on getting her beloved dog back.
Sadako and the Thousand Paper Cranes	Coerr, Eleanor B.	This tale is based on the true story of Sadako Sasaki, who is hospitalized with the "atom bomb disease," leukemia. She races against time to fold 1,000 paper cranes, an act which according to legend will make her well again.
Sarah, Plain and Tall	MacLachlan, Patricia	This short novel, rich in language, images, and emotions, tells the story of a nineteenth-century "mail order bride" who comes to the vast prairie and decides to stay as wife to papa, and mother to young Caleb and Anna.
Saving Shiloh	Naylor, Phyllis Reynolds	Sixth-grader Marty and his family try to help their rough neighbor, Judd Travers, change his mean ways, even though their West Virginia community continues to expect the worst of him.
Scatherine Called Birdy	Cushman, Karen	The thirteen-year-old daughter of an English country knight keeps a journal in which she records the events of her life, particularly her longing for adventures beyond the usual role of women and her efforts to avoid being married off.

Secret Indian	Banks, Lynn	In this third book about Omri and his magic cupboard, Omri and his friend Patrick must risk grownups' discovering their secret when they find themselves in need of a friend's toy plastic doctors to save wounded people from the dangerous world of the Old West which the cupboard enables them to enter.
Shiloh	Naylor, Phyllis Reynolds	When Marty finds a lost beagle in the hills behind his West Virginia home, he tries to hide the dog from his family and from its real owner, who is a mean-spirited man. Convinced that he's Shiloh's last chance, Marty risks his own safety for the puppy's sake and strikes a bargain with an unlikely partner. This book is the first in a trilogy; SHILOH SEASON and SAVING SHILOH .
Sideway Stories from Wayside School	Sachar, Louis	Humorous episodes from the classroom on the thirtieth floor of Wayside School, which was accidentally built sideways with one classroom on each story.
Sign of the Beaver, The	Speare, Elizabeth George	In late 18th-century Maine, 12-year-old Matthew is left alone in his family's newly built cabin for several weeks while his father returns to Massachusetts to fetch the entire family. A series of mishaps leads to Matthew's rescue by the chief of the Beaver tribe. Over a period of months, Matthew teaches an Indian boy, Attean, English, while he learns a great deal about hunting. When the tribe plans to travel, Matthew must make the most challenging decision of his life: to join them, or continue waiting for his family to return. A stirring pioneer tale of perseverance and cooperation.
Snow Angel, The	O'Nan, Stewart	This novel from is narrated by the now adult Arty Parkinson, who reflects on the painful winter of 1974 and the death of his beloved babysitter Annie Marchand. The stories of a young man's unraveling family and the circumstances surrounding the mystery of Annie's death work as a backdrop to this tale of love and loss.
Socks	Woodruff, Elvira	During a backyard slumber party, five children are transported back in time and find themselves crossing the Delaware with George Washington and his troops. This chapter book brings the conditions of the Revolutionary War to life for the young reader.
Soldier X	Wulffson, Don	In 1943 sixteen-year-old Erik experiences the horrors of war when he is drafted into the German army and sent to fight on the Russian front. The story is told in first-person narrative.
Somebody Loves You, Mr. Hatch	Spinelli, Eileen	An anonymous valentine box of chocolates mistakenly delivered to his address changes the life of the unsociable Mr. Hatch, turning him into a laughing friend who helps and appreciates all his neighbors.
Souder	Armstrong, William	Angry and humiliated when his sharecropper father is jailed for stealing food for his family, a young African American boy grows in courage and understanding by learning to read and through his relationship with his devoted dog Souder.
Stage Fright	Hart, Ellen	In a darkened Minneapolis theatre, sleuth Jane Lawless found aging actor Torald Werness dead--impaled on part of the set he had just performed on. She also discovers she's a prime suspect. Yet Jane believes the motive for the murder lies within the dead man's family, a glamorous Midwestern theatrical dynasty, whose talented members give their best performances in real life. So she and her uninhibited crony Cordelia start digging into the family dirt, and discover a tangled web of deceit.
Stone Fox	Gardiner, John Reynolds	In order to save his grandfather's Wyoming farm, Little Willy enters the National Dog Sled Races hoping to win the money to pay her back taxes. His formidable opponent is Stone Fox, who has never lost a race. The courageous Little Willy and his gallant dog, Searchlight, give the race their best try.

Strider	Cleary, Beverly	This sequel to DEAR MR. HENSHAW starts a few years after that book's conclusion and is told via the diary entries of the now 14-year-old Leigh Botts. A more confident and introspective writer than he was in the sixth grade, Leigh tells of his continuing friendship with Barry, the changes that have come into his parents' lives, his growing interest in a lovely classmate named Geneva, and his adoption of the stray dog he names Strider.
Stuart Little	White, E. B.	A heroic little mouse with very human qualities travels across the American countryside and finds himself involved in one adventure after another as he searches for his lost friend.
Stubby and the Puppy Pack	Wallace, Nikki	Kikki the cat is lonely when her best friend moves away, but the other cats in the neighborhood don't want to be her friend.
Summer of My German Soldier	Greene, Bette	Set in rural Arkansas during World War II, this story tells of an unlikely friendship between a twelve-year-old Jewish girl and a German prisoner of war. The girl goes through some shattering experiences as she searches for the strength to survive in a bitterly unhappy family. The novel depicts abusive family relationships.
Summer of the Swans	Byars, Betsy Cromer	Fourteen-year-old Sara is jolted out of a period of discontent by the disappearance of her mentally handicapped ten-year-old brother, Charlie. She gains new insight into herself and her family as she forgets about her self-perceived miseries and realizes her love for Charlie.
Superfudge	Blume, Judy	Peter describes the highs and lows of life with his younger brother, Fudge.
Taking Sides	Soto, Gary	Fourteen-year-old Lincoln Mendoza, an aspiring basketball player, must come to terms with his divided loyalties when he moves from the Hispanic inner city to a white suburban neighborhood.
Tales of a Fourth Grade Nothing	Blume, Judy	Nine-year-old Peter Hatcher's life is full of problems, most of them caused by his younger brother, Fudge. In fact, Fudge's antics garner so much of his parent's attention that Peter sometimes feels like they don't care about him at all--like he is a "nothing." Luckily, Peter finds a way to prove to himself that he is indeed a very important, and well-loved, member of his family.
Teddy Bear's Scrapbook	Howe, Deborah	One boring rainy afternoon Teddy Bear decides to bring out his scrapbook, which contains photographs and newspaper clippings from his long and illustrious past.
There's a Girl in the Boy's Bathroom	Sachar, Louis	An unmanageable, but lovable, eleven-year-old misfit learns to believe in himself when he gets to know the new school counselor, who is a sort of misfit too.
Tiger Rising, The	Dicamillo, Kate	Life changes for 12-year-old Rob Horton when he finds a caged tiger in the woods behind the Kentucky Star Motel. On the very same day, he meets Sistine Bailey and learns how to trust another person for the first time in his life.
Toothpaste Millionaire, The	Merrill, Jean	A young girl describes how her school friend made over a million dollars by creating and marketing a cheaper and better toothpaste.
Tornado	Byars, Betsy Cromer	Waiting out a tornado in a storm cellar becomes a time to share stories of a dog that was blown into a farmhand's life. In each chapter the farmhand tells one story about Tornado the dog and his amazing feats.
Treasure in a Stream	Hoobler, Dorothy	The lives of ten-year-old Amy and the members of her farming family are changed forever when gold is discovered on Mr. Sutter's land.
Trouble at Betts Pets	Easton, Kelly	A number of changes are taking place in fifth-grader Aaron's life: business at the family pet shop is declining, forcing his parents to consider selling the store; luxury condominiums are going up on the land that houses a community garden, displacing the homeless woman who lives there; and Aaron gets to know his seemingly perfect classmate Sharon when she begins to tutor him in math.

Trouble with Tuck, The	Taylor, Theodore	Helen and her dog Tuck are special friends--Tuck has saved her life more than once. Now Tuck is going blind, and it is Helen's turn. She is determined not to let Tuck's life be ended or even limited by his blindness.
Tuck Everlasting	Babbitt, Natalie	The Tuck family has become ageless by drinking from a magic spring. When ten-year-old Winnie Foster and a greedy evil stranger discover their secret, the Tucks are determined to prevent a disaster.
Twits	Dahl, Roald	Animals seek revenge against a horrible couple named the Twits in this humorous book. Mr. and Mrs. Twit spend their days playing nasty tricks on each other. The Twits mistreat their pets, a family of monkeys, training them to do everything upside down so they can feature them in a traveling circus. Tired of being abused themselves, the monkeys, with the help of a clever African bird set out to teach them a lesson they'll never have the opportunity to forget.
Walk Two Moons	Creech, Sharon	While Salamanca tells her grandparents the story of her friend Phoebe, whose mother disappeared, her own experiences are slowly revealed. The story explores a young girl's struggle in accepting her mother's death and features American Indian wisdom and values. The emotional intensity of loss confronts almost all the characters. The book covers many issues, including adoption.
Wanted... Mud Blossom	Byars, Betsey	The Blossom family has an especially eventful weekend during which Junior Blossom loses the school hamster and Paps dog Mud is put on trial for the hamster's murder!
Watsons go to Birmingham, The	Curtis, Christopher Paul	This story follows the Watsons, an African American family living in Flint, Michigan, as they travel south to visit their grandmother in Alabama. There they are confronted with the 1963 bombing of black churches. The book combines humorous characterization with important history.
Wayside School is Falling Down	Sachar, Louis	Humorous stories about the out-of-the-ordinary, 30-stories-high Wayside School. The teacher's trials and the students' antics make for a zany read-aloud book. This is a sequel to SIDEWAYS STORIES FROM WAYSIDE SCHOOL.
Westing Game, The	Raskin, Ellen	This novel investigates the mysterious death of an eccentric millionaire. It introduces an unlikely assortment of heirs who must uncover the circumstances of his death before they can claim their inheritance.
What Eric Knew	Howe, James	When amateur detective Sebastian Barth's best friend, Eric Mather, moves away, Sebastian is understandably upset. His upset turns to concern when Eric begins sending mysterious notes, convincing Sebastian that there was more to the move than his friend originally let on.
Where the Red Fern Grows	Rawls, Wilson	A young boy living in the Ozarks achieves his heart's desire when he becomes the owner of two redbone hounds and teaches them to be champion hunters.
Where the Red Fern Grows	Rawls, Wilson	This story of a young boy's childhood in the Ozarks features his intense relationship with two coon hounds and the many adventures they have while hunting. The story follows Billy from the time he only dreams of having dogs to the moment one of them is killed while saving its master.
Whipping Boy, The	Fleischman, Sid	Because disciplining the heir to the throne was forbidden, young Jemmy was taken from the streets and routinely punished in place of Prince Brat. When Prince Brat becomes bored, he decides to run away and take his whipping boy with him. Their identities are inadvertently exchanged, and high adventures and antics begin.

Wild Man Island	Hobbs, Will	The wilderness adventure of resourceful fourteen-year-old Andy, marooned on Alaska's remote Admiralty Island after a storm veers his kayak off course is depicted in this story. Andy encounters a myriad of perils, including animals, hunger, hypothermia, a maze of unexplored caves, and a mysterious wild man who holds the key to his rescue.
Wind in the Willows	Grahame, Kenneth	The humorous adventures of four animal friends, resourceful Rat, loyal Mole, exasperating Toad of Toad Hall and stern but wise Badger are related as they share life and habitat along a river in the English countryside.
Winter in the Big Woods	Wilder, Laura Ingalls	A little pioneer girl and her family spend the winter in their log cabin in the Big Woods of Wisconsin.
Wright Brothers, The	Old, Wendie	The story of the Wright Brothers is portrayed in brief, accessible chapters, beginning with their childhood fascination with flight and love of problem solving to their stunning achievement.
Zia	O'Dell, Scott	Zia and her brother journey to San Nicolas Island to rescue Karana, who finds it hard to adjust to mission life as she continues to long for her island life. This is the sequel to ISLAND OF THE BLUE DOLPHINS.